CORAM: S.C. DHARMADHIKARI &
R. I. CHAGLA, JJ.

DATED: 13TH NOVEMBER 2019

PC:-

1. After the earlier order of this Court, and in the continuing last round of the admission, the Petitioner has been granted an admission in two law colleges in the city of Mumbai / suburbs. One is the Jitendra Chauhan Law College at Vile Parle and the second one is the Gopaldas Advani Law College at Bandra, Mumbai.

2. Let the Petitioner report for admission in either of the colleges. Since the Petitioner has now been granted admission, it is entirely for him to choose one of the colleges or to wait for admission to be granted in the K.C. College of Law, so as to then secure admission in that college on the basis of the placement in the wait list.

3. The Writ Petition either way does not survive and is disposed of.
