CORAM : Manish Pitale J

DATED : 20.09.2019

This is an application for restoration of the Second Appeal, which stood dismissed on 19.08.2019, as the counsel representing the appellants could not appear before the Court when the appeal was called out for hearing.

2. It is stated in the application that the counsel representing the appellants was held up in another Court due to which he could not appear in the appeal when it was called. It is also stated by the learned counsel appearing for the applicant/appellants that cost as directed in order dated 19.08.2019 has been paid.

3. Hence, for the reasons stated in the application, the same is allowed and the appeal is restored to be heard in due course.
