Coram : R.K. Deshpande & Vinay Joshi, JJ.

Dated : 22nd January, 2019

The petitioners are at liberty to file a civil suit, as the other persons have already approached the Civil Court and their cases are pending. The petitioners are also at liberty to apply for grant of injunction. We, therefore, keep all the questions open and permit the petitioners to withdraw this petition with a view to avail the remedy of filing a civil suit for appropriate reliefs.

We direct that the status quo shall be maintained as on this date till the filing of the application for grant of injunction by the petitioners within a period of thirty days from today. If such application is not filed, the interim order shall stand vacated without reference to this Court.
