CORAM : V. M. DESHPANDE, J.

DATED : SEPTEMBER 16, 2019

Since, these two applications arise out of Crime
No.1011/2019 registered with Police Station, Jaripatka, Nagpur for the offence punishable under Section 306 read with Section 34 of Indian Penal Code, they are heard simultaneously and decided by this common order.

Criminal Application (ABA) No.614/2019 is filed
by applicants - Vinit Dilip Tayade and Ashish Dhanraj Kadam. They are represented by learned counsel Mr. R.D.
Dharmadhikari, whereas Criminal Application (ABA)
No.618/2019 is filed by applicant - Vardhraj Balraj Pilley and he is represented by his counsel Mr. Lubesh Meshram.

In these two applications, the State is represented by Mr. M.J. Khan, learned Additional Public Prosecutor.

Though two different replies are filed in these applications, the tenor of the reply is identical.

The crime was registered in view of the report lodged by Mrs. Pranita Patil widow of deceased Sanjay Patil who committed suicide by hanging himself in his house on 30.07.2019. As per first information report and as per the reply, the deceased was the owner of heavy vehicle bearing registration No.MH-31/CB-9677. The said truck was given to co-accused Roshan Ali on monthly basis. According to the reply, said Roshan Ali failed to give monthly rental amount resulting into deceased entrapped in financial difficulty. According to the first information report and according to the reply, when deceased Sanjay demanded the amount, at that time Roshan Ali refused to pay the amount and he and the present applicant asked him that he can take necessary steps whatever he want. According to the reply, the deceased was under tremendous mental tension and therefore, due to the paucity of funds he was unable to pay education fees of his son who is taking education in Delhi and therefore he was unable to take a sound sleep also.

In view of the aforesaid nature of the accusation, in my view prima facie the accusation is not sufficient to reach a conclusion that any of the applicants abated the deceased to commit suicide. Resultantly, I pass following order.
