CORAM : Z.A. HAQ & M.G. GIRATKAR, JJ.

DATED : 11th December, 2019.

Heard.

2. By this application under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the applicants (accused) have prayed that the First Information Report registered against them for the offences punishable under Sections 452, 294, 506(b), 323 read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code, be quashed. The applicants (accused) and the informant are close relatives, in fact family members. Some disputes including proceedings under the Protection of Women From Domestic Violence Act 2005, are going on before the Learned Judicial Magistrate First Class, Nagpur.

3. After hearing learned Advocate for the applicants (accused) and learned APP and going through the First Information Report and other documents placed on record, we are of the view that as the investigation is still going on and is at initial stages, it will not be proper to interfere in the matter at this stage.

4. Granting liberty to the applicants (accused) to avail appropriate remedy after filing of the charge-sheet, if any, if so advised, the criminal application is disposed. No costs.
