Heard Shri Lingayat, Advocate for the applicant and Shri Rode, learned APP for the non-applciant/State.

Shri Rode, learned APP has strongly objected the application.

Perused the contents of FIR and statement of alleged eye witness. As per the FIR there was dispute in respect of property. The complainant suspected both the applicant about commission of crime. As per the statement of alleged eye witness, it appears that deceased was beaten by fists and kicks and not by any sharp weapon. Therefore, intention of the applicant is to be seen. If they had any intention to kill the deceased then would have definitely beaten by sharp weapon. The investigation is complete.
Charge-sheet is filed. Hence, the following order:
