... Appellant

v.

1.Kandavel

2.Murugesan (Owner of the vehicle) ... Respondents

This case is taken up for settlement before the National Lok Adalat. Both the parties are present. Mr.S.Vadivel, the learned counsel for the appellant and Mr.C.Prabakaran, the learned counsel for the first respondent are present. After mutual discussion, negotiation, mediation and conciliation between both parties, they arrived at a compromise to settle the matter as follows:

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

The Tribunal has awarded a sum of Rs.8,200/- with interest at the rate of 7.5% per annum from the date of petition till the date of deposit and costs as compensation. Challenging the quantum of compensation, the appellant/Insurance Company has preferred the present appeal.

2. It is represented by the appellant/Insurance Company that the entire award amount with interest and costs was already deposited before the Tribunal.

3. After due deliberation and consultation, both the parties have agreed to modify the award amount to the tune of Rs.7,500/- (Rupees Seven Thousand and Five Hundred Only) with proportionate interest of 7.5% per annum from the date of petition till the date of deposit, and the award is accordingly modified.

4. In view of the above settlement, the first respondent is entitled to withdraw the above said modified award amount with proportionate interest of 7.5% per annum from the date of petition till the date of deposit. After satisfaction of the decree, the appellant/Insurance Company is entitled to withdraw the balance amount before the Tribunal.

5.The Civil Miscellaneous Appeal is disposed of accordingly. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed, if any.
