This case is taken up for settlement before this Lok Adalat. The appellant along with their learned counsel Mr.K.S.Narasimhan is present.

JUDGMENT

This appeal is preferred by the appellant insurance company as against the award dated 20.06.2011 passed by the Motor Accidents Claims Tribunal, Principal District Judge, Dharmapuri, in MCOP.No.742 of 2009.

2.The learned counsel for the appellant submitted that the appellant insurance company agreed to satisfy the award passed by the Tribunal. In view of the same, the award of the Tribunal at Rs.6,06,000/- with interest at the rate of 7.5% per annum from the date of filing of claim petition, with a right to recover the same from the fifth respondent/owner of the vehicle, is hereby

3.Hence, the appellant insurance company is directed to deposit the entire award amount with interest and costs, after deducting the amount if any already deposited, within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgement. On such deposit being made, the Tribunal shall transfer the same to the respective bank accounts of the respondents 1 and 4/claimants, on proper identification through RTGS in accordance with the terms of the award, without insisting on any formal permission petition. In respect of minor respondents, the Tribunal shall invest the same in a nationalised bank in a fixed deposit scheme, till they attain majority and the interest accrued thereon shall be permitted to be withdrawn by the first respondent/mother once in three months, directly from the bank, on due intimation to the Tribunal.

4.Accordingly, the Civil Miscellaneous Appeal is disposed of. Consequently, connected civil miscellaneous petition is closed.
