For Appellant: Mr.M.Swaminathan, SSC assisted by

For Respondent: Mr.Ponnaiyan

Judgment was delivered by T.S.Sivagnanam, J

We have heard Mr.M.Swaminathan, learned Senior Standing Counsel, assisted by Ms.V.Pushpa, learned Standing Counsel appearing for the appellant - Revenue and Mr.Ponnaiyan, learned counsel appearing for the respondent - assessee.

2. This appeal, filed by the Revenue under Section 260A of the Income Tax Act, 1961 is directed against the order dated 19.5.2010 made in ITA.No. 1705/Mds/2009 on the file of the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal, Chennai 'D' Bench for the assessment year 2004-05.

3. The appeal was admitted on 21.12.2010 on the following substantial questions of law :

"i. Whether, on the facts and in the circumstances of the case, the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal was right in holding that the assessee was entitled to deduction under Section 80HHC on DEPB even though the conditions prescribed under the Act for exporters having turnover above Rs.10 Crores had not been satisfied in the assessee's case ?

ii. Whether, on the facts and in the circumstances of the case, the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal was right in holding that the face value of DEPB is chargeable to tax on accrual basis and that the profit on sale of DEPB representing the excess of sale proceeds of DEPB over its face value is liable to be considered under Section 28 (iiid) at the time of its sale ? and

iii. Whether, on the facts and in the circumstances of the case, the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal was right in not holding that the scheme of DEPB is not an automatic benefit to an exporter in the form of cash assistance, but arises only on making application to the concerned authority pursuant to exports and is in the nature of 'benefit of perquisite arising out of business' and therefore, is chargeable to tax under Section 28(iv) ?"

4. The learned Senior Standing Counsel for the appellant submits that the above appeal is not pursued by the Revenue on account of the low tax effect in terms of Circular No.17/2019 dated 08.8.2019 issued by the Central Board of Direct Taxes. By the said Circular, the monetary limit for filing or pursuing an appeal before the High Court has been increased to Rs.1 Crore. It is further submitted that the tax effect in this case is less than the threshold limit.

5. In the light of the said submissions, the above tax case appeal is dismissed on account of the low tax effect. The substantial questions of law framed are left open. In the event the tax effect is above the threshold limit fixed in the said circular, liberty is granted to the Revenue to make a mention to this Court to restore the appeal to be heard and decided on merits. No costs.
