The petitioner has filed this petition for a direction to the respondents to settle the terminal and pensionary benefits.

2. There is no representation for the petitioner.

3. The learned Additional Government Pleader has filed a counter affidavit dated 07.04.2005, wherein it has been stated that pending the Writ Petition, the entire terminal and pensionary benefits have been settled in favour of the petitioner and the petitioner also encashed the same between the period 18.06.2003 and 24.09.2004. The paragraph 5 of the counter affidavit also ratifies such a submission.

4. Since the prayer sought for in the Writ Petition is for a direction to settle the terminal benefits from 01.04.2003 and in view of the submission that the terminal and pensionary benefits have been settled in favour of the petitioner, pending the Writ Petition, no further orders are required in the present Writ Petition. However, if at all, the petitioner is aggrieved against the settlement amount, liberty is granted to him to challenge the same by way of fresh Writ Petition.

5. With the above observations, the Writ Petition stands closed. No costs.
