The grounds raised in the present writ petition may not entitle the petitioner to invoke Article 226 of the Constitution of India, in view of the appeal remedy available under the provisions of the TNGST Act. Nevertheless, if the petitioner is granted liberty to file an appeal against the impugned order, the ends of justice would be secured.

2. In the light of the observations made, the petitioner is granted liberty to file an appeal against the impugned order of the respondent dated 22.10.2008, within a period of 15 days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

3. Accordingly, the writ petition stands disposed of. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
