Challenging the order passed by the Corporation of Chennai in proceedings M.A.14.Na.Ka.No.A3/8942/2013 dated 09.01.2015, the petitioner has filed this writ petition.

2. When the case was listed on 12.12.2019, this court raised a query to the learned counsel appearing for the writ petitioner that how the writ petition is maintainable, wherein the relief sought for is to regularise the service of the members, who are all working as NMR in the respondent Corporation for the past several years.

3. Today, on instruction, the learned counsel appearing for the writ petitioner submitted that he may be permitted to withdraw the writ petition with liberty to the members of the petitioner's association to make a individual claim to the respondent Corporation.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the respondents 2 to 4 submitted that if the employees made their claim individually, the same shall be considered in accordance with law.

5. In the light of the above said submissions , the writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn with a liberty to the members of the petitioner's association to make an individual claim to the respondent Corporation to seek their relief as prayed for in the writ petition, if so advised. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
