The learned counsel for the writ petitioner states that the issues between the parties were already settled.

2. In this regard, a Joint Memorandum of Compromise was filed on behalf of both the petitioner as well as the respondent. The Joint Memorandum of Compromise states that the issues were settled on account of 18(1) settlement entered into between the parties.

3. Therefore, no further adjudication needs to be undertaken in respect of the grounds raised in the present writ petition.

4. Accordingly, the writ petition stands disposed of. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
