Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate appearing for the State.

2.The revision petitioner herein is the second accused in S.C.No.105 of 1999 tried by the learned Assistant Sessions Judge, Vaniyambadi, Vellore District.

3.This is a case of dacoity during the early hour on 28.12.1996 in a remote village of Vellore District, five persons were tried for the offence under Sections 395 and 397 of the Indian Penal Code. Relying upon the evidence of the injured witnesses, the other eye witnesses and the recovery of incriminating materials based on the confession of the accused persons, both the Courts below held the accused guilty and sentenced them to undergo seven years Rigorous Imprisonment to each of the accused and to pay a fine of Rs.2,500/- each, in default to undergo 6 months Rigorous Imprisonment. The connected revision petitions preferred by the other accused were heard and dismissed by this Court vide, the detailed order in Crl.R.C.Nos.1407, 1452 and 1436 of 2011 dated 26.02.2019. This accused is one of the members of the dacoity team and enough materials were placed before the Court incriminating the accused along with other persons. Therefore, no further detail discussion about the facts and law is required. Hence, this Criminal Revision Petition challenging the concurrent findings of the Courts below deserves to be dismissed.

4. Accordingly, this Criminal Revision Case is dismissed. The judgments of the Courts below is hereby confirmed. Bail bond, if any executed by the accused shall stand cancelled. The period of sentence already undergone by the accused is set off. The sentence imposed under Section 395 and 397 IPC shall run concurrently. The respondent police is directed to secure the accused and to commit him to the prison to undergo the remaining period of sentence.
