O R D E R

There is no representation for the revision petitioner.

2. As directed by this Court on the earlier hearing i.e 15.03.2019, the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) has verified the records and reports that the confiscation proceedings has been completed. The subject vehicle was put to auction and a sum of Rs.41,220/- has been remitted into the Treasury on 21.12.2011. The present revision petition challenging the order of the Magistrate dismissing the application to return the custody of the vehicle has become infructuous, in view of the confiscation proceeding.

3. In view of the above, this Criminal Revision Case is dismissed as infructuous.
