A.S.No.236 of 2018

(R3 & R4 are impleaded)

This case came up for settlement before the Lok Adalat. The appellant, M/s.A.Parimaladevi, Special Deputy Collector, SIPCOT on behalf of the second respondent and Mrs.P.Jayanthi, wife of the first respondent are present. The learned Special Government Pleader for the appellant Mr.T.Chandrasekaran and the learned counsel for the second respondent Mr.Ramesh Venkatachalapathy are also present. After mutual discussion, negotiation, mediation and conciliation between both parties, they arrived at a compromise to settle the matter as follows:

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

The Sub Court, Kancheepuram has awarded a sum of Rs.5,300/- per cent together with 30% solatium for the land of the deceased first respondent / claimant. The Sub Court has also directed the appellant to pay interest at 9% for the first year from the date of taking possession and at 15% per annum for the subsequent years till the date of deposit, to the deceased first respondent / claimant.

2. Not satisfied with the award of the Sub Court, Kancheepuram, the Special Tahsildar (LA), SIPCOT has preferred the present appeal. It appears that first respondent / claimant died on 19.08.2013 leaving behind back his legal heirs Mrs.P.Jayanthi (Wife) and Mr.Gopalakrishan (Son). Death Certificate of the deceased first respondent / claimant and Legal Heir Certificate have been produced. Mrs.P.Jayanthi, wife of the deceased first respondent / claimant is present. A memo dated 12.11.2022 has also been presented by the said Mrs.P.Jayanthi. The appellant who has filed the present Appeal has expressed that there are no objections for implement of Mrs.P.Jayanthi (Wife) and Mr.Gopalakrishan (Son) as the third and fourth respondents before this

National Lok Adalat by filing a memo by the said Mrs.P.Jayanthi (Wife) representing herself and her son. The appellant has further contended that they are interested only in settlement of the dispute before this Lok Adalat. Both memo filed by Mrs.P.Jayanthi (Wife) and their no objection stand recorded. Thus, Mrs.P.Jayanthi (Wife) and Mr.Gopalakrishnan (Son) are impleaded as the third and fourth respondents.

3. The third respondent Mrs.P.Jayanthi, wife of the deceased first respondent / claimant submits that their son Mr.Gopalakrishnan is in Singapore and has filed a copy of the Aadhar Card of her son along with a letter giving consent to her to receive the compensation on his behalf also. The same is taken on file and stands recorded.

4. Now, both the appellant and third respondent Mrs.P.Jayanthi, the wife of the deceased first respondent / claimant have agreed to settle the dispute on payment of Rs.4,000/- per cent with other statutory benefits, within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

5. The appellant has agreed to draw a cheque / pay order towards compensation for an amount of Rs.4,000/- per cent together with other statutory benefits as agreed between the parties, in favour of the third respondent, within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and undertakes to hand over the same to the Secretary, High Court Legal Services Committee, within a period of two weeks thereafter. On receipt of the same, the Secretary, High Court Legal Services Committee, will intimate
