COMMON ORDER

[Order of the Court was made by M.M.SUNDRESH, J.]

The issue involved in all these writ petitions relates to the claim of upgradation as Grade-I Head Constable and Special Sub Inspector of Police on the basis of the Government Orders governing. These orders have been issued to get over the difficulties faced leading to stagnation without promotion.

2. The petitioners were recruited in the Tamil Nadu Police Service during 1960-1970. They were initially in the post of Grade-II Police Constable. As they were not in a position to get promotion, for want of qualifying the prescribed test and vacancy in the posts of Head Constable and Sub Inspector of Police, Government Orders have been passed accordingly.

3. The grievance of the petitioners in these writ petitions is that those Government Orders would be applicable to their cases also whereas it is a specific case of the respondents that they do not have any such effect on the petitioners.

4. Considering the very same issue, the Division Bench of this Court in W.A.Nos.47 to 51 of 2014 etc., batch, by an order dated 30.08.2019, has held that the Government orders concerned are not to be applied with retrospective operation. Further, the Division Bench has held as follows:

"11.The Government Orders must contain a clear indication for giving it retrospective operation. It would not be possible to give an interpretation to the Government Orders by treating it as one giving retrospective effect, unless there is a clear recital with regard to such retrospectivity. There is no question of bringing the theory of deemed retrospective operation of a Government Order, when the relevant order is crystal clear that the intention is only to give effect prospectively. The interpretative process could not be undertaken to give a different meaning or effect to the Government Orders.

12.The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Union of India Vs. Shankar Law Soni & another (2010(3) Scale 774), observed that a decision to grant a certain concession or a certain benefit and the conditions for their grant are a matter for the administrators alone and the Court should not interfere in the matter on the premise that it was of the opinion that some of the conditions imposed were not justified.

13.The policemen are claiming promotion as Grade-I Police Constable, Head Constable and Special Sub Inspector of Police immediately on completion of 10, 15 and 25 years of service. There was no indication in any of the Government Orders, more particularly, in G.O.Ms.No.15, Home (Pol.V) Department dated 07.01.2010 to claim deemed upgradation or retrospective upgradation. The policemen are interpreting the Government Orders as if there was a decision in their favour to grant retrospective upgradation by counting the entire service, right from the initial entry. The Government made it very clear in the relevant orders referred to above that in order to claim upgradation as Special Sub Inspector of Police, policemen must have completed 10 years of service in the rank of Head Constable. The policemen wanted the Government Orders to be interpreted in such a way that upon completing a fixed period, they would get upgradation as Grade-I Constable automatically and thereafter, as Head Constable and ultimately as Special Sub Inspector of Police. No such indication is found in any of the Government Orders extracted above. We are therefore of the view that the appellants are correct in their contention that the writ Court committed a fundamental error while interpreting the Government Orders and the same resulted in allowing the writ petitions filed by the respondents.

14. We fully concur with the views expressed by the Madurai Bench of this Court in its order in Review Application (MD) Nos.70 of 2015 etc batch.

15. The intra Court appeals filed by the State are allowed. The connected appeals filed by the policemen are dismissed. No costs."

5. Challenging the said order, some of the writ petitioners have filed Special Leave petitions in S.L.P.Nos.6980 to 6996 of 2018, which are pending consideration before the Apex Court. However, the review applications filed by some of the petitioners are yet to be taken on file.

6. All the learned counsels appearing for the respective parties are in agreement that the aforesaid judgment would govern these cases also. However, the learned counsels appearing for the petitioners submitted that liberty may be given to file review applications, if the Special Leave Petitions, which were filed on the similar issue, are allowed in favour of the petitioners therein. A further request has been made that in the event, the review applications being allowed involving the same issue, the petitioners will have to be given an opportunity to file review applications.

7. We find that the submissions made by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners merit acceptance while holding that the relief sought for in all these writ petitions is covered by the order of the Division Bench of this Court in W.A.Nos.47 to 51 of 2014 etc., batch referred supra. Accordingly, while dismissing the writ petitions, we make it clear that subject to the result of either Special Leave Petitions or Review Applications, the petitioners are at liberty to file Review Applications before this Court within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of copy of such an order. If those applications are filed within the aforesaid time, the Registry is directed to number them without insisting the application for condonation of delay.

8. Accordingly, these writ petitions are dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are also dismissed.
