The grounds raised in the present writ petition may not entitle the petitioner to invoke Article 226 of the Constitution of India, when the Act provides for an alternate remedy.

2. Nevertheless, if the petitioner is granted liberty to file an appeal as against the impugned proceedings dated 28.07.2015, the ends of justice would be secured. Hence, by taking a lenient view and by establishing a precedent, the petitioner is granted liberty to file an appeal before the concerned Appellate Authority, within a period of 30 days from the date of receipt of copy of this order.

3. Accordingly, the writ petition stands disposed of. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
