For Respondents.. Mr.C.Iyyappa Raj,
Addl. Public Prosecutor

ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by M.M.SUNDRESH, J.)

The petitioner is the mother of the detenu and challenge is made to the order of detention dated 16.03.2019 made in Memo No.132/BCDFGISSSV/2019, passed by the second respondent under which the detenu has been branded as a 'Goonda' and detained under The Tamil Nadu Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Drug-Offenders, Forest-offenders, Goondas, Immoral Traffic Offenders, Sand offenders, Slum-Grabbers and Video Pirates Act, 1982.

2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the order of Detention passed against the detenu is liable to be set aside on the ground of non-application of mind on the part of the Detaining Authority while passing the order of Detention against the detenu. According to the learned counsel for the petitioner, the similar order relied on by the detaining authority in Page No.5 of the grounds of detention pertains to some other accused and not that of the co-accused. Learned counsel further submitted that the similar order particulars were not furnished to the detenu, which shows non application of mind on the part of the detaining authority, due to which, the order of Detention passed against the detenu gets vitiated.

4.A perusal of the booklet would show that the similar case relied on by the detaining authority in Crime No.17 of 2019 registered for the offence under Sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 336, 427, 392, 397 and 506(ii) IPC on the file of M1 Madhavaram Police Station, wherein, bail was granted by the Principal District and Sessions Court, Tiruvallur in CrI.M.P.No.817 of 2019. The similar case relied on by the detaining authority does not pertain to the co-accused and the particulars of the said similar case were not properly furnished to the detenu.

5.On considering the materials, we find that there is every force in the contention put forth by the learned counsel for the petitioner and hence, the order of Detention passed against the detenu is liable to be set aside and it is, accordingly, set aside.

6. In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention Memo No.132/BCDFGISSSV/2019 dated 16.03.2019 passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, Ajith Kumar S/o. Sivakumar aged about 23 years, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
