2. Admittedly, the trial was completed by the trial Court and the matter is pending for arguments. At this stage the present Civil Revision Petition is filed. Since the matter pertains to valuation, the parties are directed to make their legal submissions on the issue at the time of arguments and the trial Court shall consider the same along with the other aspects of law.

3. The Civil Revision Petition is disposed of with the above observation and direction. No costs. Consequently, civil miscellaneous petition is closed. Further a direction is issued to the trial Court to complete the trial within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
