The learned counsel for the writ petitioner states that during the pendency of the writ petition, the writ petitioner joined in the transferred place. However, the salary due to the writ petitioner is yet to be paid. It is needless to state that the respondents have to pay the salary in accordance with the rules, without causing any undue delay.

2. Thus, the second respondent is directed to pay salary to the petitioner as per the rules in force. As far as the impugned order of transfer is concerned, no further adjudication is required, since the writ petitioner had already joined in the transferred place.

3. With these directions, the writ petition stands disposed of. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
