This Criminal Original Petition has been filed to direct the respondent not to harass, threaten or intimidate the petitioner and his family members in the colour of investigation or enquiry without resorting to any procedure established by law and thereby ensure their right to life and personal liberty as guaranteed under Article 21 of Constitution of India.

2. Heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing on behalf of the respondents.

3. It is also seen that the petitioner has been called for an enquiry with regard to a matrimonial dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant.

4. In the facts and circumstances of the case, there shall be a direction to the third respondent to conduct an enquiry and take further action in accordance with law. It is made clear that if the third respondent finds that it is a matrimonial dispute, the third respondent police shall relegate the parties to approach the appropriate Family Court.

5. With the above direction, this Criminal Original Petition is disposed of.
