The grievance of the petitioner is that the petitioner has filed a private complaint against the 1st respondent for an offence under Section 138 of Negotiable Instrument Act in the year 2015 and the same is numbered as C.C.No.2109 of 2016 and from then onwards, the case is pending at the stage of issuing summons to the 1st respondent.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has taken steps to serve the summons on the 1st respondent from the year 2016 onwards and the 1st respondent is evading service. The Court below without taking into account the fact that the 1st respondent is evading summons continuously orders for issuance of fresh summons and as a result of the same, there is no progress in the case. The learned counsel further submitted that the 1st respondent is very much available at Chennai and regularly contributing in the Face book and other social media.

3. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, there shall be a direction to the learned Fast Track Court I, Metropolitan Magistrate, Egmore, to issue a non-bailable warrant against the 1st respondent and secure him and thereafter, proceed further with the complaint in accordance with law and complete the same as expeditiously as possible.

4. This Criminal Original Petition is disposed of with the above directions.
