This case came up for settlement before the National Lok Adalat. Both the parties are present. Mr.D.Venkatachalam, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and Mr.J.Chandran, learned counsel appearing for the third respondent-Insurance Company.

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

This Civil Revision Petition is directed against the common award of MACT, Salem dated 24.11.2012. The only question in dispute is the apportionment of liability between the Insurance Company and the Transport Corporation. The Tribunal had apportioned the liability at 50%, each.

2. After negotiation, the Transport Corporation as well as the Insurance Company had agreed to modify the award in respect of the apportionment of liability alone. As per the agreement reached between the Insurance Company and Transport Corporation, the Insurance Company has agreed to pay 55% of the compensation awarded and the Transport Corporation has agreed to pay the remaining 45% of the compensation awarded.

3. The Insurance Company shall deposit the additional liability that it will incur in view of the modification of award within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of the order. The Transport Corporation also shall deposit the amount due and payable by it within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of the order. On such deposit, the claimants are permitted to withdraw the entire compensation.

4. The Civil Revision Petition is disposed of, accordingly. Connected Miscellaneous petition is closed, if any.
