

W.P.No.15118 of 2014

SUBRAMONIUM PRASAD, J

Today the matter has come up under the caption for being mentioned. It is stated by both the parties that there is few typographical errors in the order dated 07.11.2019.

a) In para 2, in third line, the word "my" has to be replaced as "the".

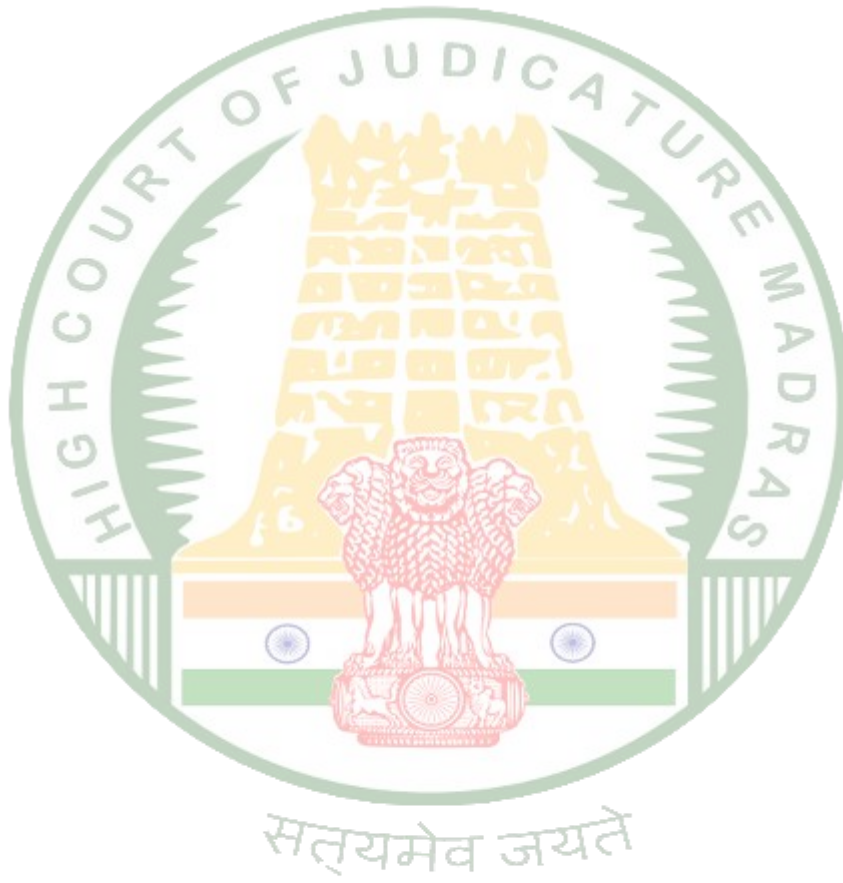

b) In Para 3, first line, instead of 13.11.2013, it has to be replaced as 06.09.2011.

d) In para 7, sixth line, instead of sentence "Had the respondents followed the Standing order, then the petitioner would have been" it has to be replaced as "Had the respondents followed the Standing order, then the petitioner would not have been".

c) In para 8, first line, instead of "not differ", it has to be replaced as "to differ".

e) In para 9, instead of 29.10.2011 to 29.01.2012, it has to be replaced as 29.10.2010 to 29.01.2012. Registry is directed to carry out the corrections and issue a fresh order copy to the respective parties.

pkn.

WEB COPY