C.R.P.(NPD).No.2928 of 2018

P.T. ASHA, J,

In the above matter as narrated in the original order in the Civil Revision Petition, extensive arguments were made by both sides and ultimately, both the parties had settled the matter as per the terms of compromise. Taking into consideration the submissions made across the bar to be a reflection of the true facts, this Court had ultimately allowed the Civil Revision Petition since by the order impugned in I.A.No.301 of 2016 in O.S.No.49 of 2006, the learned Judge had set aside the compromise and directed the suit O.S.No.49 of 2006 to be re-opened.

2.An application is made to clarify the said order by making an observation that the order in the Civil Revision Petition will have no bearing on the suit. By the order of this Court dated 05.03.2019 in C.R.P.(NPD).No.2928 of 2018, the compromise decree has been given effect too by setting aside the order in

I.A.No.301 of 2016 in O.S.No.49 of 2006 on the file of the learned Subordinate Judge, Ponneri. Therefore, on and from 05.03.2019, there was no suit pending on the file of the learned Subordinate Judge at Ponneri.

3.Considering the fact that the order dated 05.03.2019 clearly states that the Civil Revision Petition is allowed on the ground that compromise decree has been given effect to, there is no necessity for clarifications.

This Civil Miscellaneous Petition is dismissed.
