2 The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner had given a complaint to the 1st respondent on 31.08.2015 as against the 2nd respondent herein, stating that the 2nd respondent, by abusing his official power as the Panchayat President, had obtained free patta in the name of his wife and relatives, which patta is meant for the people who are below the poverty line. It is further averred by the petitioner that subsequent to the receipt of the complaint, the 1st respondent had registered a FIR in Cr.No.3/2017 on 27.06.2017 against the respondents 2 and 3 herein and despite registration of the case on 27.06.2017, the 1st respondent had not filed the Final Report till date and left with no other option, the petitioner had approached this Court by filing the present petition.
