This contempt petition has been filed for the alleged willful disobedience of the order passed by this Court in W.P.No.25149 of 2013 dated 23.07.2018.

2. The petitioner has filed the writ petition challenging the show cause notice issued by the first respondent and this Court dismissed the writ petition holding that there is no reason to quash the said show cause notice. Now, the Contempt Petition has been filed on the ground that during the hearing of the writ petition, the learned counsel appearing for the respondents given undertaking that if the petitioner seeks relevant document, it would be furnished to him. But, in violation of the undertaking, the copies were not furnished to him.

3. On a perusal of the said order, it could be seen that no such undertaking has been given by the respondents' counsel. Hence, there is no violation of the said order and the contempt petition itself is not maintainable.

4. Accordingly, the Contempt petition is dismissed. No costs.
