ORDER

[Order of the Court was made by M.M.SUNDRESH, J.]

The petitioner is the friend of the detenu, Ragukumar @ Ragu, S/o. Ramalingam, male, aged 38 years. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent by his order in BCDFGISSSV No.484/2019, dated 08.08.2019, holding to be a "Goonda", as contemplated under Section 2(f) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

3. Though the learned counsel for the petitioner has raised several other grounds to assail the order of detention, he has mainly focused his argument on the ground that the detaining authority, while detaining the detenu, has not furnished the legible copy of the document relied on by him. This deprived the detenu from making effective representation. Therefore, on this sole ground, the detention order is liable to be quashed.

4. On consideration of the submissions made on either side and upon perusal of the documents available on record, especially Page No. 565 of the booklet, it is clear that the detaining authority, by providing illegible copy of the document, has taken away the rights of detenu to effectively defend himself against his detention. Thus the impugned detention order is liable to be set aside on this ground.

5. In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in BCDFGISSV No. 484/2019, dated 08.08.2019, passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, namely, Ragukumar @ Ragu, S/o. Ramalingam, male, aged 38 years, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
