

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.,

The learned counsel for the appellant would submit that originally on the complaint filed by the appellant, a case was registered against the respondents/accused for the offence under section 420 and under section 3 and 4 of the Prize Chits Money Circulation Scheme (Banning) Act , 1978.

2 The trial Court had acquitted the respondents/accused for the offence under Section 420 of IPC, whereas convicted them for the offence under Section 3 and 4 of the Prize Chits Money Circulation Scheme (Banning) Act , 1978. However, the Appellate Court without considering the evidence both oral and documentary, let in by the prosecution against the accused before the trial court and acquitted them for offence under Sections 3 and 4 of the Prize Chits Money Circulation Scheme (Banning) Act 1978, namely conducting fraudulent chit, the accused / defacto complainant has been cheated to the tune of Rs.13 Lakhs.

3 In view of the above, leave is granted and the Registry is directed to number the criminal appeal, if papers are otherwise in order.
