child was unwell and the child could not be produced before the Court. Taking note of the fact that all the orders are being complied with, there is no necessity to keep the contempt petition pending. It is needless to say that if there is any breach of the orders of this Court in future, it is open to the petitioner to initiate proceedings for Contempt.

2. It is further made clear that in the event of the father not being able to produce the child for weekly visits, advance information would be given to the mother. With the above directions, the Contempt Petition is closed.
