ORDER

This petition has been filed challenging the order passed by the Court below dismissing the application filed under Section 311 of Cr.P.C. to recall PW1 to PW4 for cross-examination.

2.It is seen from the records that the petitioner is facing trial before the Court below for an offence under Sections 408 and 477 (A) of IPC r/w. 109 IPC.

3.The final report was taken on file in the year 2007. The prosecution examined PW1 on 14.10.2008, PW2 and PW3 were examined on 06.02.2013 and PW4 was examined on 19.07.2017 and none of these witnesses were cross-examined. The case was at the stage of examination of Investigating Officer. After nearly nine years from the commencement of trial, the petitioner chose to file a petition to recall PW1 to PW4 for cross-examination.

4.The Court below dismissed the said petition on the ground that the petitioner did not examine as to why he waited for nine years to recall PW1 to PW4. The Court also took into consideration the judgment of Vinod Kumar Vs State of Punjab, reported in 2015 (3) SCC 220.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing on behalf of the respondent.

6.This Court does not find any illegality or infirmity in the order passed by the Court below and the Court below was perfectly right in dismissing the application filed under Section 311 of Cr.P.C. It is clear that the petitioner only wants to drag on the proceedings and keep it pending for years.

7.In the result, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed and the Court below is directed to complete the proceedings in C.C.No.184 of 2011, within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition dismissed.
