(Judgment of the Court was delivered by K.K.SASIDHARAN,J.)

These two Civil Miscellaneous Petitions are at the instance of the wife and the challenge is to the decree dated 30.08.2018 in O.P.No.4230 of 2014 and GWOP.No.4650 of 2014 respectively.

2. The Trial Court, pursuant to the original petition filed by the appellant, granted a decree of divorce. Feeling aggrieved by the decree of divorce as well as the condition imposed by the Trial Court to exercise the visitation rights, the appellant has preferred the Civil Miscellaneous Appeals.

3. The parties, during the currency of the appeals, have settled the matter amicably and executed a Joint Memorandum of Compromise.

4. When the Appeals are taken up for hearing today, the learned counsel for the parties produced a copy of the Joint Memorandum of Compromise dated 19.09.2019. The Memo is taken on record. The parties have agreed for dissolution of marriage by mutual consent.

5. The respondent has already made payment as indicated in the Memorandum of Compromise.

6. The parties who are present in court have confirmed the settlement and execution of the Joint Memorandum of Compromise.

7. In view of the settlement, there shall be a decree of dissolution of marriage by mutual consent.

8. The address mentioned in the Aadhaar card of the minor child bears the residential address of the father. The appellant intends to make an application for amendment of the particulars regarding the address of the minor. Since the parties have settled the matter, there would be no difficulty for the parties to make changes taking into account the residential address of the appellant (Ms.J. Meena).

9. We make it clear, in case any application is made by the appellant herein for change of the residential address of the minor child in the Aadhaar card or any such other documents, the same should be carried out by the concerned authorities, taking into account the spirit of the agreement entered into among the parties.

10. The Civil Miscellaneous Appeals are disposed of by granting a decree of dissolution of marriage by mutual consent. No costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petitions are closed.
