The petitioners, who are arrayed as accused, apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the alleged offence punishable under Section 498(A) of IPC in Crime No.21 of 2018, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the marriage between the first accused and the defacto complainant was solemnized on 07.06.2015. Thereafter the first accused along with the petitioners herein compelled the defacto complainant to live with the mother-in-law at Madurai and left abroad for his job. Hence the complaint.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that investigation is pending. He would also submit that the petitioners harassed the defacto complainant and demanded more dowry.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact there are serious allegations against the petitioners, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Hence the anticipatory bail petition is dismissed.
