3. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the complaint of the petitioner was enquired and closed.

4. Inasmuch as the petitioner faces threat to his life, limb, liberty and right to property, it is necessary that the second respondent shall approach the issue from a different perspective. If the threat perception of the petitioner continues, the petitioner is now directed to prefer a fresh complaint, whereupon the second respondent shall cause such necessary enquiry on the complaint filed by the petitioner and take such appropriate decision as may be necessary to protect the life, limb, liberty and right to property of the petitioner. It is made clear that this Court does not order granting of police protection 24 x 7 and the second respondent is left to decide on the basis of the objective assessment of the threat perception of the petitioner from time to time.

5. With the above direction, this Criminal Original Petition is disposed of.
