2. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that both the petitioner and the seventh respondent belonged to the Scheduled Castes Community, that the seventh respondent was assigned three cents of land, which was later cancelled and the said plot was now assigned to the petitioner. The seventh respondent now poses threat to the petitioner's life, limb, liberty and right to property.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that no complaint / representation is pending.

5. For the present, if the petitioner alleges that she faces threat to her life, limb, liberty and right to property from the seventh respondent, she is directed to give a fresh complaint to the fourth respondent and on such fresh complaint, the fourth respondent is directed to cause such necessary enquiry on the complaint filed by the petitioner and take such appropriate decision as may be necessary to protect the life, limb, liberty and right to the property of the petitioner. It is made clear that this Court does not order granting of police protection 24 x 7 and the fourth respondent is left to decide on the basis of the objective assessment of the threat perception of the petitioner from time to time.

6. With the above direction, this Criminal Original Petition is disposed of.
