PETITION FOR ANTICIPATORY BAIL Under Sec.438 Cr.P.C

PRAYER :-

For Anticipatory Bail in Crime No.not known on the file of the respondent police.

ORDER : The Court Made the following order :-

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 147, 148, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.140 of 2019, seek anticipatory bail.

2. Heard both sides.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners has submitted that due to civil dispute, a false case has been registered against the petitioners. He further submitted that the injured sustained only simple injury and he has already been discharged from the hospital. He further submitted that except the offence under Section 506(ii), all other offences are bailable in nature. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondent has submitted that the petitioners have constructed a bathroom obstructing a common pathway and when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant and his family members, the petitioners herein have unlawfully assembled and assaulted them by using deadly weapons and caused injuries to two persons. However, he fairly conceded that the injured persons have already been discharged from the hospital.

5. Taking into consideration the fact that the dispute is with regard to construction of a bathroom in a common pathway and also the fact that the injured sustained only simple injury and they were already discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners by imposing certain conditions.

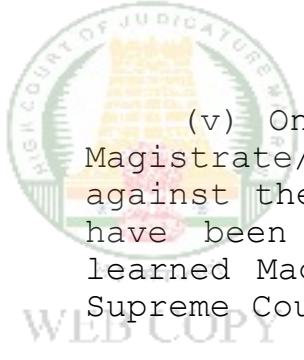

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.1, Karur, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

(i) If the petitioners fail to surrender before the concerned Magistrate within a period of 15 days, this order shall stand automatically cancelled.

(ii) the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m for a period of three weeks and thereafter, as and when required before the respondent police for interrogation.

(iii) the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

(iv) the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

(v) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

(vi) If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229-A IPC.
