CR.NO.113 OF 2019

... RESPONDENT/COMPLAINANT

For Petitioner : MR.V.AKILAN, Advocate

For Respondent : MR.R.ANANDARAJ, Additional Public Prosecutor

PETITION FOR ANTICIPATORY BAIL Under Sec. 438 Cr.P.C.

ORDER : The Court Made the following order :-

The petitioner, who is arrayed as accused No.2, apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent Police for the offence punishable under Section 379 IPC., r/w. Section 21 (4) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.113 of 2019, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 24.05.2019, during the vehicle check up, the respondent police intercepted a lorry bearing Registration No.TN-57-AA-2441 and found that the petitioner has illegally transported 4 units of gravel sand without any valid permission. On seeing the law enforcing agency, the petitioner fled away from the scene of occurrence. Thus, a case has been registered against the petitioner.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the stolen properties have been recovered and the investigation is not yet completed.

5. The submissions made by the learned counsel on either side are considered. It is alleged, during the time of occurrence, without getting any permission from the appropriate authority the petitioner involved in sand mining. As of now, the property, which was used for commission of offence was recovered. Hence, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not necessary for completing the investigation. In the said circumstances, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with condition.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.IV, Trichy, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

(i) the petitioner as well as the sureties shall submit a copy of their Aadhar Card or any other identity cards issued by the Government, in proof of their address, along with the surety bonds;

(ii) the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.00 a.m., for a period of three weeks and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation;

(iii) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

(iv) the petitioner shall co-operate for the investigation and the trial. The petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial and in event of the petitioner abscond, the respondent police shall register a case as provided under Section 229-A IPC.

(v) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the anticipatory bail granted to the petitioner shall stand automatically cancelled and the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].
