2. Heard both sides.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners has submitted that due to a wordy quarrel arose between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, a false case has been registered against the petitioners. He further submitted that the injured sustained only simple injury and he has already been discharged from the hospital. He further submitted that except the offences under Section 506(ii), all other offences are bailable in nature. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondent has submitted that counter cases are pending. She further submitted that the investigation is still pending. Thus, she opposed this petition. However, she fairly conceded that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital.
