The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 323, 324, 341, 110, 355 and 506 (i) of IPC in Crime No.335 of 2019, seek anticipatory bail.

2. Heard both sides.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners has submitted that due to wordy quarrel, a false case has been foisted against the petitioners. He further submitted that the injured sustained only simple injuries and also he was discharged from the hospital and therefore, he prayed anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent has submitted that the petitioners have assaulted the defacto complainant and criminally intimidated him and hence, she opposed this petition. However, she fairly conceded that the injured sustained only simple injuries and he was already discharged from the hospital.

5. Taking into consideration the fact that the injured person sustained only simple injuries and he was also discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Melur, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

(vi) If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229-A IPC.
