2. Heard both sides.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners has submitted that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in the above case. He would further submit that no previous case is pending against the petitioners. He would also submit that even as per the First Information Report, the accused parties went to bury the dead body of one Yasmeen in their patta land, the complainant party objected the same even though the said land belongs to the accused party. Hence he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) has submitted there was some dispute regarding burial of dead body. Hence she opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. However she fairly conceded that the accused party went to bury the dead body of one Yasmeen in their patta land only and no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that no previous case is pending against the petitioners and also the fact that the accused party went to bury the dead body of the said Yasmeen in their own patta land, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

[6] Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Devakottai on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] if the petitioners fail to surrender before the concerned Magistrate within a period of 15 days, this order shall stand automatically cancelled.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent Police, daily at 10.30 a.m for a period of three weeks and thereafter, as and when required for the interrogation.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
