3.Suffice to say for the present that if the petitioner continues to have any real threat perception to his life, limb and liberty, he is directed to prefer a fresh representation to the fourth respondent, upon receiving which, the fourth respondent shall cause such necessary enquiry, as may be necessary to secure life, limb and liberty of the petitioner.

4. It is made clear that this Court does not order granting of Police protection 24 X 7 and the fourth respondent is left to decide on the basis of the objective assessment of the threat perception of the petitioner from time to time.
