Since this Court expressed that the petitioner has come forward with this writ petition without a search and collecting enough particulars, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner seeks permission of this Court to withdraw the writ petition with liberty to file a fresh writ petition after collecting enough materials and he has also made an endorsement to that effect. In view of the endorsement made by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, this writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty to the petitioner to approach this Court after collecting materials either under Right to Information Act or by visiting the people, who have received the benefit of the scheme. No costs.
