COMMON ORDER

Heard the learned counsel on either side.
<https://hcservices.ecourts.gov.in/hcservices/>

2.The writ petitioners are tenants under the respondent temple. The monthly rental amount was revised and enhanced. The dispute is presently pending adjudication before the Commissioner, Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowment Department, Chennai. The petitioner had earlier moved this Court and this Court had put them on terms. The petitioners are remitting their monthly rentals in terms of the order passed by this Court. But then, the respondent, instead of issuing receipt for the rent received, is seeking to adjust the same against the arrears. That has necessitated the filing of this writ petition.

3.When the matter was taken up for hearing, the learned counsel appearing for the respondent submitted that the respondent would henceforth issue appropriate receipts.

4.Recording the said submission, these writ petitions are closed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
