ORDER

The order of rejection dated 10.02.2015 rejecting the claim of the writ petitioner to provide appointment to her son on compassionate ground is under challenge in the present writ petition.

2.The husband of the writ petitioner was employed as a Junior Assistant and passed away on 28.12.2012, while he was in service. An application seeking appointment was filed by the writ petitioner to the respondents. The same was not considered on account of the fact that the son of the deceased employee was a minor during the relevant point of time.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner states that even at the time of filing of the writ petition on 11.08.2015, the son of the writ petitioner was a minor and now he had attained the age of majority.

4.Under these circumstances, it is left open to the legal heirs of the deceased employee to submit an application seeking appointment on compassionate grounds if they otherwise eligible and qualified in accordance with the terms and conditions of the scheme of compassionate appointment. In the event of receiving any such application, the respondents are bound to consider the same, strictly in accordance with the terms and conditions of the scheme as expeditiously as possible.

5. Accordingly, the writ petition stands disposed of. However, there shall be no order as to costs.
