This petition has been filed to issue necessary direction to the 2nd respondent to provide necessary police protection to the petitioner and his property of the hostel and his hotel workers for their life and limb.

2.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is a tenant under the respondents-3 & 4 herein and he is running a hotel business. In the meantime, the respondents-3 & 4 wanted to vacate the petitioner from the premises and as such without any reason and therefore, the third respondent has filed RCOP No.41 of 2018 the same is pending before the learned Rent Controller, Tirunelveli. The fourth respondent is trying to vacate the petitioner from the hotel premises illegally. He would further submit that the second respondent has also threatened the petitioner to evict the premises and the second respondent is hand in glove with the respondents-3 & 4.
