The order of deputation deputing the Petitioner to District Munsif-cum-Judicial Magistrate on administrative grounds, is put to challenge before this Court.

2.We have perused the grounds raised in the affidavit filed in support of this Writ Petition challenging the order of deputation. We find that none of the grounds are legally sustainable, that too, challenging the order of deputation. Needless to say that these kind of orders passed on administrative grounds cannot be interfered with, more particularly, when the rights of the Petitioner in service is not affected in any manner. Therefore, We find that the present challenge is not entertainable.
