2. Heard both sides.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners has submitted that due to wordy quarrel, a false case has been lodged against the petitioners. He further submitted that a counter case has also been registered in Crime No.100 of 2019. He further submitted that the injured sustained only simple injury and he has already been discharged from the hospital. He further submitted that already A1 to A5 were arrested and remanded to judicial custody and subsequently, they were released on bail and hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police has submitted that investigation is still pending. Thus, he opposed this petition. However, he fairly conceded that the injured sustained only simple injury and he has already been discharged from the hospital.

5. Taking into consideration the fact that the injured sustained only simple injury and he has already been discharged from the hospital and also the fact that a counter case has also been registered in Crime No.100 of 2019 and also the fact that already A1 to A5 were arrested and remanded to judicial custody and subsequently they were released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners by imposing certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ottanchathiram, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

(iii) the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

(iv) the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

(v) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

(vi) If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229-A IPC.
