2.The case of the defacto complainants is that they purchased lands from the petitioner for consideration. It turned out that there is no land as per the sale deeds. The defacto complainant placed reliance on memorandum bearing ஐ.பி. (ஆ) 5941/2018, dated 03.09.2018 issued by the Tahsildar, Thoothukudi, in this regard. The specific case of the defacto complainant is that no land is existing on ground as per the sale deeds executed by the petitioner in favour of the two defacto complainants. It is not statement made in air. It is duly backed by the memorandum issued by the jurisdictional Tahsildar. This Court wanted to know from the petitioner's counsel, if the petitioner is willing to return the sale consideration after getting sale deeds cancelled, this Court would be inclined to grant relief to the petitioner but the petitioner is not responding to the suggestion put forth by the Court. Therefore, I am of the view that the petitioner is not entitled to any relief. These criminal original petitions stands dismissed. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
