4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is a member of Marthandam Bee keepers Co-operative Society and he has not contested the election of the Co-operative Society. The persons, whose nomination papers were rejected, have filed a writ petition in W.P.(MD)No.10617 of 2018 before this Court and this Court has passed an interim order on 03.05.2018 that the matter should be posted before the next vacation Court and in the mean time, the respondent should not publish the result of the election and the said result is still kept in abeyance. He further submitted that since there is an order of stay for publishing the election result, there is no necessity for the petitioner to damage the ballot boxes. He further submitted that the alleged act may have been committed by any of the contesting candidates. He further submitted that in the FIR, the name of the petitioner has not been mentioned and only based on the confession said to have been given by one Christhuraj (A1) before the police, the petitioner herein arrayed as accused. He further submitted that the confession which was said to have been given before the police is not admissible as per Section 25 of the Evidence Act. He further submitted that even in the said confession the said accused has not stated that the petitioner herein broke open the door of the said Society and caused damage to the ballot papers. On the contrary he has simply stated that he gave idea how to destroy the said ballot papers. Further, except the said confession statement, no other material is available to implicate this petitioner in the above crime and therefore, he prayed to anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Per contra, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent has submitted that since he is a member of the Society and he is not contesting the election, the petitioner is having grievance about the conducting of the election and hence he has conspired to destroy the said ballot papers. In pursuance of the said conspiracy, on 21.07.2019, during the mid-night at about 02.50 a.m, the petitioner along with three others went to the said Society and tied the hands, mouth and eyes of the watchman and broke open the door and entered into the Society and broke open the ballot boxes and set fire to the ballot papers and destroyed the said ballot papers and caused damage to the CCTV camera and disc. He further submitted that after registering the FIR, one Chirsthuraj was arrested and he gave a confession, in which, he has categorically stated that all the accused persons have conspired and also committed the aforesaid offence. He further submitted that since the investigation is at initial stage, the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is absolutely necessary, and hence, he prayed to dismiss this petition.

6. In the FIR itself it is stated that already the nomination papers submitted by some candidates have been rejected and aggrieved by the same, the aggrieved persons have filed W.P(MD)No.10617 of 2018 and obtained an interim order and hence counting of the votes stopped. Further it is stated that the four unknown persons on 21.07.2019 during mid-night at about 02.15 a.m came there and tied the hands of the watchman and after breaking the door, they entered into the said Society and broke open the ballot boxes and set fire to the ballot papers. In the FIR, the name of the petitioner has not been mentioned.

7. Further, admittedly, the petitioner is a member of the above mentioned Society and he is not contesting the election. Further, the only material, which is relied on by the prosecution is that during investigation, one Chiristhuraj was arrested and he gave confession before the police and based on the said confession statement the petitioner herein have been implicated. In the said confession, he has stated that he only gave idea to the petitioner as to how to destroy the ballot papers and beyond that he has not stated anything that in pursuance of the said idea, whether the petitioner herein has destroyed the papers or not. Further the alleged confession statement given before the police is hit by Section 25 of the Indian Evidence Act. So, no reliance can be placed upon the said confession statement. Apart from the aforesaid confession statement of co-accused said to have been given before police, no other materials has been produced by the prosecution to implicate the petitioner in the above case.

8. Taking into consideration all the aforesaid facts, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

9. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Magistrate-I, Kuzhithurai, Kanyakumari District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

(i) If the petitioner fails to surrender before the concerned Magistrate within a period of 15 days, this order shall stand automatically cancelled.

(ii) the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m for a period of three weeks and thereafter, as and when required before the respondent police for interrogation.

(iii) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

(iv) the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

(v) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

(vi) If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229-A IPC.
